

Arizona Resources for Combined Vision and Hearing Loss

Arizona Center for the Blind and Visually Impaired (ACBVI)

“Providing Comprehensive Services to the Visually Impaired Community”
One program specifically aids those with combined vision and hearing loss
www.acbvi.org/cvhl

iCanConnect

Provides distance communication equipment and training; Arizona contact is ACBVI www.icanconnect.org
icc@acbvi.org

Arizona Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing

“ACDHH provides DeafBlind and Combined Vision and Hearing Loss (CVHL) consumers with supports to empower, promote independence, and access to community while working with other agencies and organizations to increase and expand opportunities to improve the quality of life.”
<https://www.acdhh.org/deafblind/>

Valley Center of the Deaf

Provides Support Service Providers (SSP) for the DeafBlind and CVHL in the Phoenix Metropolitan area.
<https://vcdaz.org/services/deafblind-services/>

Community Outreach Program for the Deaf

Provides Support Service Providers (SSP) for the DeafBlind and CVHL in the Tucson Metropolitan area.
<http://www.copdaz.org/clientsservices.htm>

Helen Keller National Center Arizona Deaf-Blind Specialist

Provides training and resources to those with combined vision and hearing loss.
Regional office contact is Jonathan Pringle:
Jpringle@helenkeller.org Phone: 516-417-1165 Videophone: 520-829-9103
www.helenkeller.org/hknc

Arizona DeafBlind Project

“Provides technical assistance, training, and support for children and youth who have a combined vision and hearing loss. This support extends to families, educators, and service providers of children and youth who are deafblind.”
<https://azdeafblindproject.org/>

For more resources, please see the Vision Loss and Hearing Loss documents at atarizona.com/resources